TO BUILD BIGGER PIPE LINE NEXT YEAR

Plans for construction for a 22 inch oil pipe line next year to supplement the 12 inch pipe laid in 1941 were announced last week by President F. C. Schultz of the Portland Pipe Line Corporation. He stated: "The Portland Pipe Line Corporation and the Montreal Pipe Line Company, Ltd., have been studying for some time a project to increase the capacity of their pipe line system to handle estimated increase in throughput requirements over the next ten years. The two companies now plan to build a second main line, 22" in diameter, from South Portland, Maine, to Montreal East, Province of Quebec, with construction to start in June, 1950, and with completion scheduled for November, 1950. The new line will be laid over the present right-of-way alongside the present line and will, when completed, be operated in conjunction with the present 12" line. Capacity of the new system will average up to 140,000 barrels per day and may, when required be increased still further by the installation of additional pumps at each station. After this new line is completed the end of next year we will reduce our operating pump stations to the three located at South Portland and North Waterford in Maine and Lancaster in New Hampshire. At that time we will discontinue operating the pump stations at Raymond in Maine, Gorham in New Hampshire and West Burke in Vermont, as well as the present two operating stations in Canada. As far as we can foresee at the present time, we anticipate that when the stations mentioned above, in the United States, are shut down at the end of next year we will continue the regular employees located at those stations in our employ at other stations. The new project also includes the construction of a new 30" discharge line from the tanker unloading pier to the Pleasantdale plant at South Portland and the construction of four additional 150,000 barrel floating roof tanks at the latter point."

"During 1941 the Portland Pipe Line Corporation received 223 tankers at its South Portland Terminal with crude oil receipts amounting to 24,410,427 barrels, which represented approximately 55% of the total incoming Portland Harbor tonnage for that year. Capacity of the present system average around 67,000 barrels per day with deliveries being made at Montreal East, Province of Quebec to four refineries located at that point."

GOULD WINS SEVENTH STRAIGHT

In a one sided ball game here last Saturday Gould swamped Norway high, 21-0, for their seventh straight victory of the season. Marshall and Kendall with four hits each for half of the Huskies' 18 hit attack were the battling stars. L. Bennett and Durgin got two each.

Mason and Rolfe divided the pitching chores and allowed the visitors only four hits. The game was cut to seven innings after the home teams took such a big lead in the sixth.

GOULD J.V.'S WIN FIRST

The Gould J.V.'s scored their first victory of the season as they bettered the Norway J.V.'s here last Saturday morning. Lowell started on the mound for the winners but gave way to Dave Jordan in the fifth.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion Home on May 24.

The president appointed Mrs. Frances Bennett, and Mrs. A. D. Forbes to audit the treasurer's books.

Plans were made for the Auxiliary to attend the Methodist Church on Sunday, May 29. The members will meet at the Legion Home at 10:30.

The officers will be installed by Mrs. Margaret Driscoll of Auburn, vice-president of the 2nd District on June 14.

Mrs. Frances Bennett was appointed chairman of the refreshment committee. Some of the members are making candy for the Girl Scouts. The poppy chairman gave out poppies to be sold on Poppy Day, May 25.

SECOND "GOULD ALUMNUS" ISSUED LAST WEEK

Of interest to hundreds of alumni of Gould Academy is the second issue of the Gould Alumnus, distribution of which started last week. Designed to supplement the issue of October, 1944, its 72 pages contain late news of the 1500 Gould graduates and students from 1889 to 1949.

The book is the work of Alumni Secretary Eva Bean of the class of 1913, who was engaged for several months in gathering and arranging the information. As a result of her thorough efforts the Alumni Association files lack the correct address of only nine of the 1500 alumni. These names are listed on the inside of the back cover and no doubt some of the addresses will be supplied by their fellow alumni.

The new book, larger by nearly three quarters than the original issue, is illustrated on its covers by pictures of the boys' and girls' dormitories. It is dedicated to Ellery C. Park, local attorney and long time trustee of the Academy, whose death occurred in March. The book also contains a summary of the past five years' athletic records and an editorial which briefly introduces distant alumni to the Gould Academy of today. Also in this issue are the names of the members of the board of trustees and faculty, including faculty members who have been here in the past five years. Pages are devoted to the Gold Star Alumni and those whose deaths have occurred since the 1944 issue.

The Gould Alumnus is already much in demand, not only by alumni but by local people who are interested in the school and its former students, because of the authentic information which is completely up to date contained in this issue. Members of the class of 1949 include 13 who are sons or daughters of Gould alumni or former students.

Orders for The Gould Alumnus, accompanied by a dollar and mailed to the G. A. Alumni Secretary, Bethel, will be filled promptly.

COUNTY TRACK MEET HERE SATURDAY

The annual Oxford County Track Meet is scheduled to take place at Bethel on Saturday with the opening events starting at 1:00 p.m. Entries are expected from Fryeburg Academy, Gould Academy, Stephens High of Rumford, and Mexia High School. The Gould Huskies have been showing plenty of power in their meets to date but have not met any of the other three entries.

The County Meet was originally scheduled for Norway in 1949 but since Norway High has abandoned Track the County schoolmasters accepted the invitation of Gould Academy to hold the meet in Bethel. Coaches are to meet at the Field House at 12:30 with the opening event start at 1:00 p.m.

MRS. EUGENE ANDREWS

Mrs. Mary L. Andrews, wife of Eugene Andrews, died Friday at her home at Norway. She was born at Albany Jan. 13, 1884, the daughter of Herbert and Charlotte Elliott Marion.

Mrs. Andrews was a past matron of the Norway chapter of the OES, and a member of the Albany Congregational Church, although she attended the Norway church in later years.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Clarence W. Buck and Mrs. Phillip D. Wright, both of Norway; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Huff funeral home, South Paris, Monday afternoon. Interment was in Norway Pine Grove cemetery.

GUY MERRILL IN KOREA

Word was received recently by Joel Merrill that his son, Pfc Guy Merrill, had arrived in Korea on April 2, 1949. He reenlisted in January 1949. Before his reenlistment he was employed by the Oxford Paper Co. He served at Ft. Belvoir, Va., Ft. Dix, N. J., Camp Reynolds, Pa., and Camp Stoneman, Calif., during his Army career. During World War II he served in England, France and Germany.

We wish to thank all you very good people of Bethel for your generosity and goodness in helping us make our Open House night a huge success.

The Brownies

The office of Dr. E. L. Brown will be closed Saturday, May 28, reopening on Monday, June 6.

SLEUTH FINDS AGED MAN AT DRY MILLS

Sleuth the bloodhound owned by Deputy Sheriff Grover and Robert McMillin was called to Dry Mills last Thursday noon to hunt for Isaac Bubler, nearly 100 years old, who was lost in the woods. The trall was 24 hours old when the dog took up the hunt. Over 75 men had tramped the woods, there being over 30 roads which anyone could take and some leading into three different swamps. Late Thursday afternoon Sleuth took to the swamp and was doing a grand job when darkness forced him out.

He started again Friday morning and still stayed in the swamp. The trall was difficult, being so old and so many having gone over the ground. After lunch at noon the searchers were attracted to the swamp again by someone faintly shouting. The dog and several men went into the swamp again, some on each side of the brook. And at 2:15 o'clock the voice was heard again.

It was a grand sight to see the dog when he came up to the old gentleman. Everyone who came in contact with Sleuth spoke very highly of his work. And the county and state are very fortunate to have this dog to help locate lost persons. Sleuth was bought last March by Grover and McMillin and has his residence at the Grover home on Mason Street. His former owner, Sheriff Arthur Jennison of Keene, N. H., recently visited Sleuth here last year in the search for Fred Kilgore at North Newry.

MEXICO NINE HERE FRIDAY

Gould will entertain the Mexico Pintos here Friday in the final league game of the season for the Huskies. Game time is scheduled for 4:00 p.m.

Gould still leads the league but their defeat at Fryeburg Tuesday means they must win from the Pintos for undivided possession of the championship. If they win on Friday Gould is scheduled for a first round game in the Tourney on Wednesday, June 1, probably with West Paris who now leads the Class "B" county teams.

GOULD GARNERS FIVE FIRTS AT BATES RELAYS

In the Class "B" competition at the Bates Relays last Saturday Gould Academy came through with five first places in a 10 event program, breaking records in two of them. J. Davis broke his own record in the discus with a throw of 143 ft 3 1/2 in. for a new mark. He also had a hand in the other record, too, as he ran with Grant, Stinchfield, and Dodge to set a time of 3 min. 54.9 sec. in the mile medley relay.

Richmond Davis tied for second in the pole vault while Jerry Davis won the high jump at 5 ft 7 in. Norton and Adams came through with seconds in the broad jump and javelin respectively.

The 440 yd. relay was gathered in by the Huskies with Tiff, Adams, Davis and Klain carrying the baton, time 47 seconds.

In the mile relay, Jordan, Hickcox, Noyes, and Stinchfield teamed to another first place with a time of 3 min. 52.7 seconds.

No team scores are kept at the Bates Relays but if they had Gould would have been out front with 33 with Kennebunk following with 23 Kennebunk is going to be the team to beat at the State Meet this year. They boast excellent men in the hurdles, broad jump and polo vault.

WEAR A POPPY," URGES LOCAL LEGION COMMANDER

All members of the American Legion were called upon to wear a poppy on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 28, in a special message issued today by Henry Robertson, commander of George A. Mundt Post of the Legion.

Urging that veterans of both world wars set an example of reverence for the war dead by wearing the memorial flower throughout the day, he said.

"Passage of the years has not dimmed our memory of those comrades of ours who served by our sides and who gave their lives for America. Let us, then, show that we remember them and honor their sacrifice by wearing our memorial flower, the poppy, on Poppy Day. In this observance war veterans should set the example for all citizens."

"Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, our wives, mothers, sisters and daughters will distribute the flowers on the streets on Poppy Day and receive contributions for welfare work among needy veterans and veterans' children. Knowing as we do the great and growing need for this phase of Legion and Auxiliary activity, we should be as generous as our means permit when receiving our poppies."

"Members of the American Legion should be among the first to put on poppies on Poppy Day and should give every cooperation toward making the observance of the day a complete success."

Mrs. Kimball Ames is the guest today at tomorrow of Rev. and Mrs. John Foster at Easthampton, Mass. Mr. Ames will go there Friday and Miss Priscilla Carver will return with them to Bethel.

Wayne Perry observed his sixth birthday last Thursday afternoon with a party at his home. Games were enjoyed. Prizes were won by Jeffrey Hutchins and David Boynton. Those present were Julia Rose Brown, Carolyn Chapman, Pamela Young, Susan Saunders, Elizabeth Waldron, David Boynton, Brian Soothorne, Judy Howe, Jeffrey Hutchins and the honor guest.

Mrs. Richard Carter, Mrs. Francis Noyes and Mrs. Ada Conner represented Chapter No. 102, at the 57th annual Grand Chapter session of the Order of the Eastern Star, held at Lewiston May 23-25. Mrs. Asher Funnells attended Tuesday as a delegate and was accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Reed, Mrs. Annie Cotton, and Mrs. Grace Marfarlane. Past Matron Ada Conner served as an usher during the session and on Wednesday afternoon received her appointment as District Deputy Grand Matron of District No. 5. On Thursday she attended the D. D. G. M.'s school held at Mount Olivet Chapter rooms, Lewiston, where a luncheon was served honoring them at noon.

Paralysis

On March 14, at the direction of one man, our nation's coal production was choked off. More than 400,000 coal miners were asked to leave their jobs for two weeks to be followed by 67,000 railway employees whose jobs depended upon transporting coal.

The cause for this paralysis to a large section of our economy was not any grievances about working conditions, pay, pensions, or vacations. It appears, however, to result from personal dislike of one man for another. In response to the President's appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, John L. Lewis ordered his United Mine Workers on a two-weeks' layoff.

Excessive Power?
Within his field, John L. Lewis possesses the nearest approach to dictatorial powers of anyone to appear on the American scene. He has defied Presidents and Congresses, crippled production in the face of economic crises, and dolted the war effort by strikes in wartime. By directly controlling the output of a basic industry, he holds power to strangle our entire economy with a prolonged strike.

With this "spile" strike Lewis has encroached upon two basic fundamentals of our democratic progress: (1) The right of government to make appointments free of pressure, and (2) Freedom to work.

Warning Sign

This action presents a real danger signal to the American public. It shows what can happen when irresponsible leadership of a great body of influence—American labor—goes on a rampage. The implications are alarming. If any one individual were powerful enough to dictate governmental appointments with threats of strikes, a new era of demagogues would indeed be at hand. Such power would be potentially disastrous.

The weapon of indiscriminate strikes is one which labor leaders alone control. Neither government nor management possesses such a power.

The rank and file of labor, too, because of their organization, are subject to the orders of those leaders. Many labor leaders recognize this situation and act in a farsighted manner. However, the selfish actions of any one leader casts unfavorable reflections on the whole movement.

National Responsibility

No mere loyal group of American citizens exists than the miners themselves. It is sad irony these people should suffer the brunt of the strike. According to the Associated Press, they will lose about $60 million in wages during the two week layoff. This means $60 million in food, clothing, and other essentials must be forfeited to the whims of one leader who was elected by workers to safeguard their interests.

This points up sharply the need for adequate labor legislation. Without violating the rights of labor, we must draw clearly the line where those rights end and national responsibility begins. The average worker has everything to gain in such legislation. Labor must be accorded complete protection from irresponsibility—found within its own leadership, or elsewhere.

Have you heard by now? The time is now! Act now!

HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE

PRAISE VS. CONDEMNATION

HERE'S A STORY stemming from the United States army, which has given us many good examples of how to handle people. The men who have learned lessons from the situations they have faced in army life are going to benefit by them all their lives, and we are glad to have them pass examples along to us.

Paul A. Brown, of Houston, Tex., was commanding officer of an anti-aircraft battery in the jungles of Panama where one soldier was continuously causing trouble. As a penalty, the previous commanding officer assigned to him the duty of manning the incinerator.

This was a job no man wanted, for it consisted of burning refuse, garbage, tin cans, then digging a hole and burying the remains. The extremely-high temperatures, the excessive humidity, the smell of the burning garbage, the digging of the burying trenches, the chopping of wood for firing the incinerator, and the heat of that fire, all combined to make it a most unpleasant task.

Each battery was inspected several times a week by a medical officer with a view to making sure that there would be no scattered garbage or other refuse to breed flies and insects and add to the hardships in safe-guarding the health of the command. In the tropics, the rapidity with which the breeding of seemingly-millions of insects is unbelievable.

Time after time, Mr. Brown's battery had received demerits from officers for laxness with regard to the incinerator.

Result? Continuation of carelessness. The private had been called on the carpet, his pass privilege revoked for the week; he would go back to his job and show some improvement—for a few days. He had no interest nor pride in his work whatsoever.

Mr. Brown decided to try a new angle. He looked over the man's work and noted every detail of improvement, searched for improvement, in fact. Then he complimented that soldier wherever he could. He discussed with him the importance of his job, let him know that the health of that battery was largely in his hands.

Gradually, the man took pride in his humble task. Compliments from other officers, and particularly the inspector, made him renew his efforts. He turned into a fine soldier.

When it comes to praise vs. condemnation, you can count on praise winning!

THIS WEEK IN Washington

THE HOOVER COMMISSION on reorganization of the executive branch of the federal government has made its report to the congress. It has been on the congressional desks, some of it, for a matter of months. Yet there has been done exactly nothing to bring to fulfillment the monumental task of the commission. The answer as to why is obvious: (1) many agencies with important support from those with whom they do business don't want to be reorganized and, (2) the government function should be carried out frequently collides with the policy question of whether it should be carried out at all.

A case in point is the postoffice department. Everyone agrees that there should be no deficit in the postoffice department, but there agreement ends. Nobody agrees on how to get rid of that deficit. In the past, attempts to reorganize the executive agencies has resulted in exemptions for some in the bill, which opens the door for exemptions for all. President Truman and ex-president Herbert Hoover stoutly oppose any exemption status for any agency. But the big offices will get their work in. The house has passed a bill which would give the president broad powers to reorganize by executive order, but gives the congress power to overturn him within 60 days after submission of his reorganization plan. The senate has a similar bill, which would permit either house to overturn the president.

Various groups are seeking exemption for their pet agencies. Various individuals and organizations want the army engineers left out of any reorganization plan; the Railroad Labor Executive association wants railroad regulatory agencies exempted; American Bankers' association wants special status for banking agencies, etc.

The Hoover commission would reduce the number of executive agencies reporting to the president from 66 to 21. It would give the president authority to name heads of units in his department without Senate confirmation.

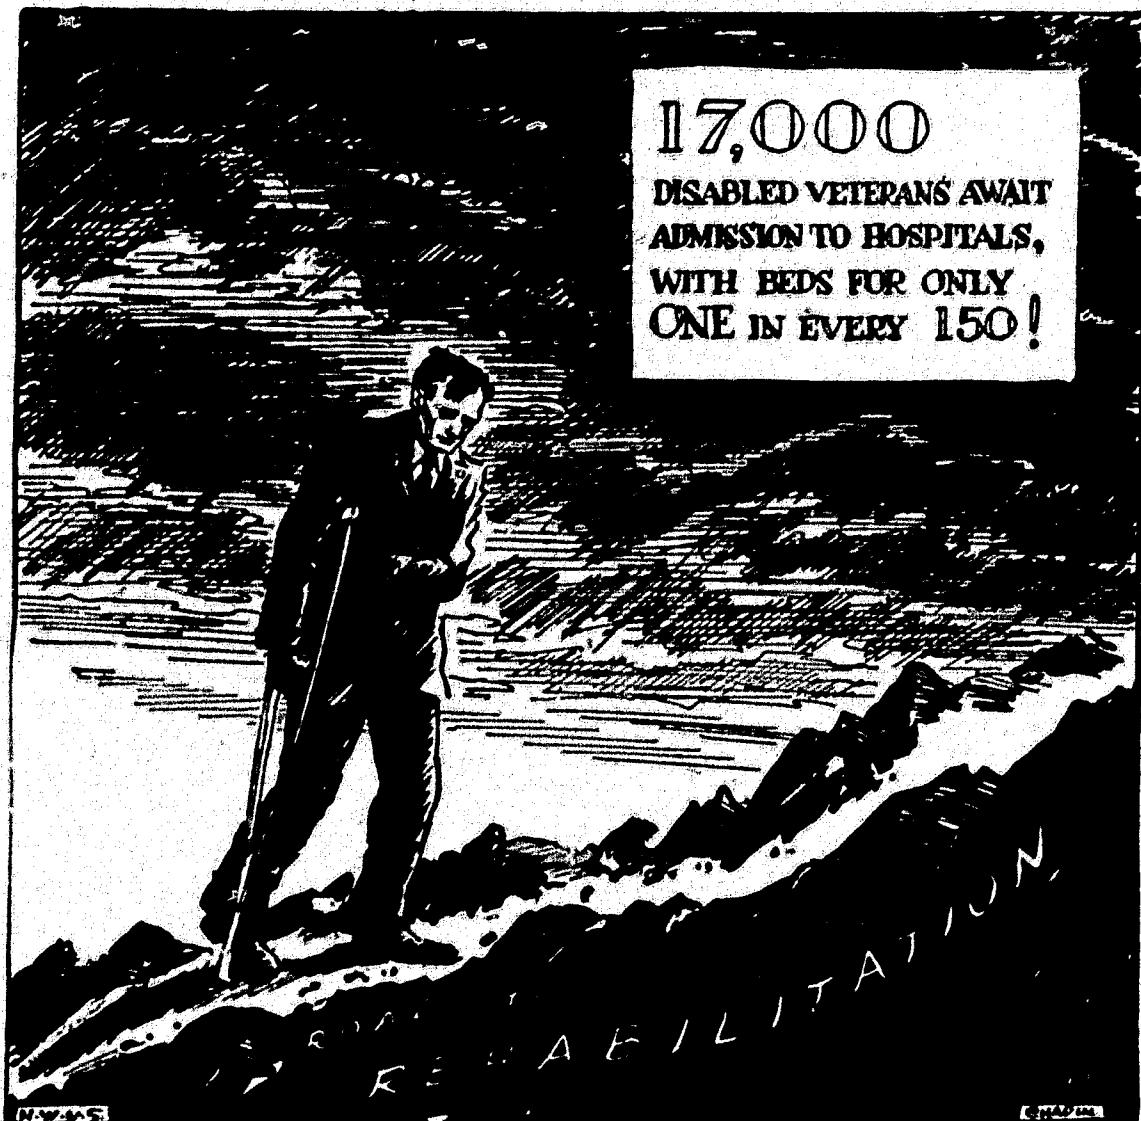

In the department of the treasury, the reorganization would set up nine agencies, transfer the Reconstruction Finance corporation, Export-Import bank and Federal Deposit Insurance corporation to the treasury, and establish an accountants general and monetary and credit

Watching and Praying in Gethsemane.

Lesson for May 29: Mark 11:24.

Memory Selection: Mark 14:36.

The name Gethsemane will ever be a symbol of wondrous suffering. It is the name of a garden of olives across the brook Kidron from Jerusalem. The ancient olive trees found there are evidently descendants of those under which Jesus prayed.

At the entrance of the garden, Jesus went farther into it, taking with him Peter and James and John. He told them His soul was exceeding sorrowful even unto death, then bade them tarry and watch, and He went a little farther and fell on the ground in an agony of prayer. If Jesus needed to pray, so should we. He prayed that the cup of bitterness might be removed from Him, but He added: "Not what I will, but what thou wilt."

What a contrast between Jesus and the sleeping disciples! Thrice He came and found them sleeping and gently reproached them. The third time He came He indicated that it was too late to watch—"The Son of man." He said, "Is betrayed into the hands of sinners." Then He went forth to meet the henchmen of the Sanhedrin and the Roman soldiers, led by Judas.

Peter drew his sword. But he and the others had neglected the preparation of seeking unto God for help. We are too much like them in much we do. Let us abandon our own resources and seek those of heaven. Let us learn from Jesus the substance of all prayer—"Not what I will, but what thou wilt." More at less than that prayer would be enough.

AND WE HAND THEM SPAIN!

ON SUNDAY, May 1, readers of the New York Times saw two pictures on the front page — one picture of "Van of Leftist May Day Parade on 5th Avenue." The other showed a parade of royal Americans in another part of the city.

A huge standard is borne by three people in the van of the leftist parade. It reads, "No Deals with Franco-Spain." Can you imagine whence came the instructions to display this slogan? Can you understand the stupidity of those Western Nations which still refuse to grasp the significance of this determined Red attack on the present anti-Communist government of Spain? Here we are at war with the Asiatics — call it "cold war" if you like—but it is a war to the death just the same. AND WE HAND THEM SPAIN!!

If the western governments can't understand, let's explain it to them. It is such a simple explanation. In December, 1946, the Red Asiatic strategists in the United Nations "slipped a fast one" over the Democracies and induced them to boycott European Spain and thus kill most of her essential foreign trade. Their object, of course, was to destroy the present dictator government of Franco and replace it with a "dictator" government controlled from Moscow.

They know that, if they can accomplish this, all Western Europe must soon fall into their lap and any hope which we may have of checking the conquest of Europe will have been lost. They know that the "Spanish Government in Exile" — even if it were able to get control of Spain upon the fall of the Franco regime — could last but a short time.

Any one who knows Spain must realize that a convulsion there could end in only one way, and that is, the way of those nations which now lie in servitude behind the Iron Curtain; and it is not stretching the imagination to prophecy that this result may mean slavery for our children as well as Spain's.

Let us face the fact that communism is fast winning the war against democracy. We've lost China. How long will southeast Asia hold out? Then we must supply 80 million Japanese or they must join the Communist coalition.

COURTESY IMPORTANT IN STATE'S TOURIST BUSINESS

Everett F. Creighton, executive-director of the Maine Development Commission urges Maine communities, resort areas and "citizens in general" to "pick up and clean up" so as to be ready to greet an estimated 1,000,000 summer visitors who will "soon be making their way into Maine."

In addition Creighton pointed out that courtesy and "real Maine hospitality" shown visitors will show "big dividends" in more business for Maine.

"Every citizen with whom the visitor comes in contact can do a real public relations job in making him feel at home thus adding to the enjoyment of his stay in our state," Creighton said.

Creighton stated that each visitor is a "potential Maine property owner" and that many who vacation in Maine are industrialists who may establish industries here if they form a good opinion of the state and its people.

Creighton praised the Maine State Highway Department for doing "an excellent job" in clearing the roadside areas of bottles, paper and other debris.

He said that all inland resorts will be open for business by June 1 and that coastal tourist accommodations will "open gradually during the month" to be ready for business by June 26.

"Formerly visitors didn't start to come to Maine before July, but in recent years the Commission and other agencies have been seeking to lengthen the season at both ends, a result, more are vacationing in June and September than formerly," Creighton revealed.

Creighton said he expected a "good season" if the national economic situation remains stable.

JACKSON SILVER POST, A. L. MEMORIAL DAY PLANS

The Gould Academy band will furnish the music for the parade that will form at the Legion Hall at 10 a.m. with Commander Richard Andrews as marshal. In the line of march will be the American Legion, its Auxiliary, Daughters of Union Veterans, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and school children. All veterans are invited to come out in uniform and help make the services a success.

National committeeman Hector Staples of Rockland will deliver the Memorial Day address in the Union Church. Let's have a good turn out for he's an outstanding speaker and he has come a long way. He will also speak at West Paris in the afternoon.

It is expected that the Community Club will serve a public dinner in the Town Hall at noon.

Poppy chairman Bertha Mason

had eight posters made by the school children; she named as judges, Celia Lamb, Rena Howe and Johnnie Howe. Mrs. Mason is arranging a Poppy window.

Don't forget to buy a poppy in remembrance for our fallen heroes and to help the boy who made it at Togus. The proceeds go for welfare work also. $3.00 was voted for the Cancer Fund.

Successful Parenthood

BY
MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

TV TELEVISION is to bring children back into the home, after a whole generation during which youngsters found most of their entertainment elsewhere, what can parents do to make the most of this opportunity for a closer family life?

The first thing you can do is write your television station, telling them what kind of programs you'd like to have your children see. From the beginning, video officials have realized that their responsibility for what was to be seen in your living room was even greater than that of radio for what was heard. Those who might unblushing kill off a dozen characters on a broadcast, with a great popping of guns and smacking of fists, are not so blithe about staging a murder for young eyes to see.

But this hesitancy to go the limit in violence won't necessarily last. In the early days of children's radio, greater care was taken with programs than is generally the case nowadays. Then the more blood-curdling serials began to produce the greatest number of box tops as children rushed to send them in, and sponsors voted in favor of more and better serials. True, when parents became aroused, reforms were instituted and a code governing children's programs did away with the worst abuses. But what happened was that most stations lost interest in children's shows and radio threw away its opportunity to be a vitally enriching part of our children's lives.

Recently I served as one of the judges for an award to the best children's broadcast. It was heartbreaking to find how little real mazie there was in even the most apparently satisfying experiences.

Those who have studied the impact of television on family living habits advise that if possible it is preferable to have the set in some other room than the living room. This room should be left for the piano, records, for quiet reading and conversation.

My own vote would be for the kitchen, provided there isn't a playroom or study available for the television set. Children used to love to gather in the kitchen—being around mother while meals are being prepared is one of childhood's elementally satisfying experiences.

Diarist Vividly Describes 1852 Cross-Country Journey

I have just been in company with several Ladies and Gentlemen to visit an ancient Spanish Fort built D 1675 to defend the pass of the fort and from thence it was ever at this place to the Lake on whose borders at that time were several large cities, and from this fort there is said to be the ruins of quite a large City, of the fort & not much above the base of the hill which is supposed to be a secret way of ingress or egress. Around the base of the hill was another ditch of about 10 feet wide by 8 deep. Within the fort some twenty feet high on the corners of which were 4 Watch towers some 6 feet high and sufficiently capacious to hold one Watchman. This story contained a magazine, two of them, one on either side of the north side. The centre was an open Room at this point, as it seemed divided into 3 equal parts, appeared as the abode of the Soldiers—into this portion as the only public entrance, secured by a drawbridge. From this Story arose another some thirty feet less in diameter to the height of 10 feet, divided by a wall through the centre. This Story was evidently the place where cannon were placed as Fort holes were to be seen, made in such a way that guns could be brought to bear in every direction.

The children at home were very helpful if they made the length of time they were there, and the moments when we were restless or wandered about concerned about their use of leisure time should regularly to television station specific suggestions for the programs their children were watching.

Those who have studied the history of television on family basis advise that it is preferable to have the other room than the one. This room should be the piano, records, for reading and conversation.

A vote would be for the provided there isn't a play study available for the television. Children used to love to go to the kitchen—being around the meals are being pre-one of childhood's elements.

ALBANY TOWN HOUSE — AND VICINITY

Mrs Anna Bumpus, Correspondent

Bural Life Sunday was observed Sunday at the Church Service at Hunt's Corner with an attendance of 32. The service was conducted by Reverend W I Bull, assisted by representatives from the Ladies Farm Bureau, the Grange and the Church.

Mr and Mrs Howard Lapham and Lona Keniston called at Harlan Bumpus' Wednesday evening.

A large crowd attended the Circle Supper which was held at Hunt's Corner, Thursday evening. Another supper will be held in two weeks.

The Ladies Farm Bureau met at the Town House Wednesday afternoon, May 18. After the business meeting, Mrs Edith Ellingwood from South Paris gave instructions on chair caning. This was a very interesting and helpful meeting.

Round Mountain Grange held their regular meeting Monday evening, May 16, at Hunt's Corner.

Officers were installed by Worthy Master, Roy Wardwell. A lunch was served after the meeting.

Mrs Marie Dustin, who lives with Mrs Hannah Coolidge, fell Monday and fractured her hip. She was taken to the Rumford hospital.

Calvin Coolidge and John Cox of the Navy who are stationed at Philadelphia were at the Coolidge home for the week end.

George Batchelder, who has been enjoying a leave from the Army left for Texas Monday where he will report for further duty.

Miss Elizabeth Noyes, daughter of Mr and Mrs Roy Noyes, was one of the graduates from the CMG Hospital, Sunday. Those attending the exercises from here were Mr and Mrs Harold Marshall and Mrs Murray Cummings.

MARKETING with Marjorie

Meal-planning used to be a chore for me, but not any longer! I just rely on A&P for menu inspiration. I find A&P foods so tempting and A&P prices so thrifty, that it's really easy to put new excitement into every meal including breakfast!

WAKE UP AND CHEER!

Breakfast gets off to a grand start when you serve glasses of chilled A&P GRAPE JUICE. It's pure, full-strength juice of Concord grapes that you'll like either as is, or diluted with water. On hot days it makes a wonderful base for fruit punch. Or try it mixed with carbonated water. You'll always get delicious, healthful refreshment with A&P GRAPE JUICE!

CRACKIN' CRISP 'N' COOL

Bright May mornings seem even brighter when breakfast includes a crisp, ready-to-eat treat like your favorite SUNNYFIELD COLD CEREAL. Choose from a wide, thrifty variety—and you can be sure that if it's SUNNYFIELD, you get cereal at its crunchy, nourishing best! No wonder SUNNYFIELD CEREALS taste so swell! They save you money, too, at your thrifty A&P.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Happenings That Affect the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare

The agreement between the Soviet Union and the Western powers to lift the blockade of Berlin and to reopen mutual discussions of the German problem, is generally considered to be a major victory for the West in the "cold war." It would be manifestly unwise to believe that the situation is susceptible to no other interpretation—the Kremlin has pulled many a clever trick in the past, and things are not always what they seem to be on the surface. However, the Russian blockade failed entirely to get the planned result, and the Soviet policy makers have apparently accepted that as demonstrated fact and are embarked in a new tactical direction.

The Berlin blockade will make a colorful page in history if only for one reason—the way the air lift broke it. No one save a few American military experts—and they had their doubts—believed that a great city, war-torn and with few resources of its own, could be indefinitely supplied by air. But the air-lift did the near impossible. Food, coal and all the rest of the necessities came in by thousands of tons each day, weather notwithstanding. The British helped materially. Every possible plane was pressed into service and kept flying. The job was done without regard to cost or risk. At times planes arrived and departed from Tempelhof airfield at two-minute intervals day and night. Berlin was fed and sheltered.

The air-lift was the weapon that made the blockade untenable. But, if Russia has really decided it is necessary to come to terms with the West there must be other reasons back of it. One may be that the Bear has bit off all and perhaps more than he can chew for the time being. The job of consolidating the countries behind the Iron curtain is incredibly difficult. It is no secret that millions of people in Czechoslovakia, Hungary and elsewhere are restive under Soviet domination. Russia is making an all-out effort to increase her industrial production, particularly in the heavy-goods field. The drain of her military establishment on her re-

Sources en masse. Under these circumstances, the Politburo may have understandably decided that a prolonged truce with the West, if not a real peace, is desirable.

No one should minimize the reverence the West has received in China. It will be a miracle if the Nationalist government survives as an effective influence. However, it is doubtful if the Chinese Reds will do much for their Russian friends. Stalin is said to have compared Chinese communists to a radish—red outside and white inside. They have a job on their hands within China without trying to help extend the Soviet ideology throughout the world.
